

Please add the following new claims:

40. A method for controlling a pest wherein said method comprises inhibiting, within said pest, solute transport or ion channel activity.

B²
41. The method, according to claim 40, wherein said inhibition is achieved by applying a CAATCH protein to said pest.

42. The method, according to claim 1, wherein said compound is applied with another pesticide.

43. The method, according to claim 42, wherein said another pesticide is a Bacillus thuringiensis.

44. The method, according to claim 1, wherein said compound is applied in a formulation further comprising a carrier.

45. The method, according to claim 44, wherein said carrier is an oil or powder.
